

Powerful Conclusions Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Strong Conclusions in Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about writing strong conclusions.

1. What is the purpose of a strong conclusion in writing?

2. What should you do in a conclusion?

- A. Introduce new ideas
- B. Restate your main opinion
- C. Write a long paragraph

3. A strong conclusion should end with a ____ final thought.

4. Why is it important to remind readers of your strongest reasons?

5. Match the part of the conclusion to its purpose.

Restate Opinion

Reminds readers of your stance

Summarize Reasons

Highlights key points

Memorable Thought

Leaves a lasting impression

6. A strong conclusion should introduce new ideas.

- True False

7. Which linking word can you use in a conclusion?

- A. First
- B. Finally
- C. Next

8. Proverbs 15:23 teaches us that wise words can bring ____ and understanding.

9. How can a strong conclusion help your readers?

10. What does a powerful conclusion do?

- A. Confuses the reader
- B. Restates the main opinion
- C. Makes the writing longer

Answer Key

1. A strong conclusion wraps up my opinion and key points. 2. Restate your main opinion 3. memorable 4. It helps them remember why they should agree with me. 5. Reminds readers of your stance 6. False 7. Finally 8. joy 9. It helps them understand my opinion better. 10. Restates the main opinion

