

Finding Reliable Sources Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Research Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about finding reliable sources.

1. What is an example of a reliable source?

- A. Social media posts
- B. Encyclopedias
- C. Advertisements

2. A trustworthy source should have the author's ____ and background.

3. Why is it important to use good sources when doing research?

---

---

4. What should you check to see if a source is credible?

- A. The author's name
- B. The color of the website
- C. The number of pictures

5. Match the source type with its description.

Encyclopedia

A collection of information on various topics

Trusted Website

A site that is known for accurate content

6. To ensure good information, compare it from ____ sources.

7. What might make a source less reliable?

---

---

8. What does Proverbs 18:15 tell us about seeking knowledge?

- A. It is unimportant
- B. It is wise to seek knowledge
- C. Knowledge is not needed

9. A good source should have a recent ____ date.

10. How can you tell if a source is trustworthy?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Encyclopedias 2. credentials 3. Using good sources helps us find accurate information that we can trust. 4. The author's name 5. A collection of information on various topics 6. multiple 7. If the information is outdated or written by someone who is not an expert. 8. It is wise to seek knowledge 9. publication 10. You can check the author's credentials and see if they are an expert in the topic.