

Research Presentation Day Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Learning

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about the Research Presentation Day lesson.

1. What is one objective of the research presentation?
 - A. To play games
 - B. To practice public speaking skills
 - C. To draw pictures
2. Proverbs 18:15 reminds us that the ear of the wise seeks ____.
3. What did you learn during your research? Share one interesting fact.

4. Match the presentation technique to its description.

Stand tall

Don't read directly from them

Use notes

Show confidence

5. What was one talking point discussed about presentations?
 - A. Use a funny voice
 - B. Speak clearly
 - C. Make it very short
6. Sharing knowledge helps others by ____.
7. What did you enjoy most about your research project?

8. Students presented their research projects to the class.

True

False

9. What should you focus on while presenting?

- A. Reading from your notes
- B. Making eye contact
- C. Sitting down

10. How can sharing knowledge help others?

Answer Key

1. To practice public speaking skills 2. knowledge 3. I learned about dolphins and how they communicate. 4. Don't read directly from them 5. Speak clearly 6. teaching them 7. I enjoyed learning about the animals and finding new facts. 8. True 9. Making eye contact 10. It allows them to learn new things and understand better.