

Capitalization Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Capital Letters

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about capitalization.

1. Which of the following is a proper noun?

- A. city
- B. Monday
- C. happy

2. The pronoun '____' is always capitalized.

3. Why is correct capitalization important?

4. Match the type of word to its capitalization rule.

Days of the week

Always capitalized

Title of a person

Not capitalized

5. What should you capitalize in a sentence?

- A. first word
- B. common nouns
- C. verbs

6. We capitalize the names of ____ and months.

7. Can you give an example of a proper noun?

8. What does a capital letter signal to the reader?

- A. It's the end of a sentence
- B. It's a special word
- C. It's a common word

9. In the sentence 'John went to the park', 'John' is a ____ noun.

10. What are three situations where you always use capital letters?

Answer Key

1. Monday 2. I 3. It helps people understand what we mean clearly. 4. Always capitalized 5. first word 6. days 7. An example of a proper noun is 'Emily'. 8. It's a special word 9. proper 10. At the beginning of a sentence, for names, and for days of the week.