

Language Arts Growth Reflection

BibleMouse.com

Celebrating Our Communication Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what you've learned about your language arts growth this year.

1. What writing skill are you most proud of this year?

---

---

2. What does Proverbs 16:23 teach us about our speech?

- A. It is good to be quiet.
- B. Wise people improve their speech.
- C. Words do not matter.

3. Ephesians 4:29 encourages us to use speech that builds others ____.

4. How have your reading and writing skills improved this year?

---

---

5. Match the skill to its description.

Proud of my writing

I can read harder books now.

Growth in reading

I can write better stories.

6. What is one area you would like to improve in next year?

- A. Writing more poems
- B. Reading less
- C. Ignoring feedback

7. The heart of the wise instructs his ____, and adds learning to his lips.

8. Why is self-reflection important in language arts?

---

---

9. What should we avoid according to Ephesians 4:29?

- A. Corrupt speech
- B. Good words
- C. Speaking loudly

10. What are you excited to share in your Growth Reflection Portfolio?

---

---

Answer Key

1. I am proud of my storytelling skills because I can create interesting tales. 2. Wise people improve their speech. 3. up 4. I have read more books and learned new words that help me write better. 5. I can write better stories. 6. Writing more poems 7. mouth 8. Self-reflection helps us see our progress and understand how to keep improving. 9. Corrupt speech 10. I want to share my favorite stories and poems that show my progress.

