

Charlotte's Web Celebration Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Friendship and Sacrifice

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about the lessons learned from Charlotte's Web.

1. What did Charlotte do to help Wilbur?

- A. She ignored him
- B. She wrote words in her web
- C. She ate him

2. Charlotte showed true friendship by making a great ____ for Wilbur.

3. How does Charlotte's love reflect God's love?

4. Match the characters to their qualities.

Charlotte

Selfless friend

Wilbur

Grateful and loving

5. Charlotte used her talents to save Wilbur's life.

- True False

6. What does the memory verse from Proverbs 17:17 teach us?

- A. Friends are only for fun
- B. True friends love all the time
- C. Brothers are always enemies

7. True friendship means helping others ____ .

8. What are some sacrifices you have seen friends make?

9. Why is Charlotte's friendship important in the story?

- A. It teaches us about selfishness
- B. It shows the value of true friendship
- C. It has no effect on the plot

10. A friend loves at all ____, and a brother is born for adversity.

Answer Key

1. She wrote words in her web 2. sacrifice 3. Charlotte's love is selfless and helps others, just like God's love. God loves us and helps us in our needs. 4. Selfless friend 5. true 6. True friends love all the time 7. selflessly 8. Friends may help each other when they are sad or share their toys. They do things to make each other happy. 9. It shows the value of true friendship 10. times