

He, She, They Story Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Third-Person Point of View

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about third-person point of view.

1. What pronouns do we use in third-person stories?

- A. I, you, we
- B. He, she, they
- C. Me, my, us

2. How is third-person different from first-person?

---

---

3. The third-person point of view uses pronouns like ____ and ____.

4. Which of these is an example of a third-person narrative?

- A. I went to the park.
- B. She saw the movie.
- C. We are having fun.

5. Why do third-person narrators see inside characters' thoughts?

---

---

6. Match the pronouns to their type of point of view.

I

First-person

He

Third-person

We

First-person

7. In third-person stories, the narrator is not a ____.

8. What is the connection of Matthew 11:2-5 to third-person stories?

- A. It is a first-person story.
- B. It describes Jesus's ministry in third-person.
- C. It talks about John in first-person.

9. What does Proverbs 3:5-6 tell us to do?

---

---

10. A story told using 'he' or 'she' feels more like an ____.

---

Answer Key

1. He, she, they 2. In third-person, the narrator is not a character. They tell the story about others. 3. he, she 4. She saw the movie. 5. They can describe what characters feel and think without being in the story. 6. First-person, Third-person, First-person 7. character 8. It describes Jesus's ministry in third-person. 9. It tells us to trust in Yahweh with all our heart and acknowledge Him. 10. observation

