

Fables and Their Morals

BibleMouse.com

Review Your Understanding of Fables

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below to show what you learned about writing fables.

1. What do animal characters in fables represent?

- A. Real people
- B. Human traits
- C. Nature

2. The moral of a fable is the ____ lesson that it teaches.

3. What are two key elements you need to create a fable?

4. Which of the following is a good reason to write a fable?

- A. To entertain only
- B. To teach a lesson
- C. To tell a long story

5. Match the animal to the trait they might represent.

Fox

Cunning

Lion

Bravery

6. Why is it important to have a clear moral in your fable?

7. Fables are usually ____ and focused on teaching a lesson.

8. What should you consider when choosing animals for your fable?

- A. Their colors
- B. Their traits
- C. Their sizes

9. How do stories help us learn important lessons?

10. Proverbs 4:23 teaches us to keep our heart with all ____

Answer Key

1. Human traits 2. important 3. You need animal characters and a moral lesson. 4. To teach a lesson 5. Cunning, Bravery 6. A clear moral helps readers understand the lesson you want to share. 7. short 8. Their traits 9. Stories make lessons easier to remember and understand. 10. diligence