

Review of Art and Advocacy Projects

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Hope, Freedom, and Resolution in Ivan

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Ivan's story and how we can advocate for others.

1. What does it mean to be an advocate?

- A. To speak up for others
- B. To stay silent
- C. To create art

2. Art can tell stories that words sometimes ____.

3. Why is it important to help others find freedom?

4. Match the theme with the correct description.

Hope

Caring for others

Compassion

Believing in a better future

5. What is one way we can use art to help someone?

- A. By drawing pictures
- B. By keeping it to ourselves
- C. By throwing it away

6. God gives us creativity to make a ____.

7. What theme from Ivan's story touched your heart?

8. What does Proverbs 31:8 encourage us to do?

- A. Stay quiet
- B. Speak up for the mute
- C. Ignore the needy

9. We can use our talents to help ____.

10. How can creativity show compassion?

Answer Key

1. To speak up for others 2. cannot 3. It is important because everyone deserves to be free and happy. 4. Believing in a better future 5. By drawing pictures 6. difference 7. The theme of hope touched my heart because it shows that things can get better. 8. Speak up for the mute 9. others 10. Creativity can show compassion by allowing us to express our feelings and support others through our art.