

The Psalms: Poetry of Praise

BibleMouse.com

Review Worksheet

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions to show what you learned about the Psalms.

1. What do the Psalms express?

- A. Only joy
- B. Emotions like joy, sadness, and thankfulness
- C. Only sadness

2. Psalms are songs and poems that express our ____ to God.

3. Why does God love when we express our hearts to Him?

4. Match the emotion to the example of a Psalm.

Joy

Psalm of praise

Thankfulness

Psalm of gratitude

5. Who wrote many of the Psalms?

- A. King Solomon
- B. King David
- C. Moses

6. Psalm 95:1 invites us to ____ to Yahweh.

7. How can poetry help us talk to God?

8. What is the memory verse for this lesson?

- A. Psalm 95:1
- B. Psalm 23:1
- C. Psalm 100:4

9. Draw a line from each poetic element to its description.

Rhyme

Words that create pictures in our minds

Imagery

Words that sound similar at the end of lines

10. Psalms can be a form of ____ to God.

Answer Key

1. Emotions like joy, sadness, and thankfulness 2. emotions 3. Because it shows our love and trust in Him. 4. Psalm of praise, Psalm of gratitude 5. King David 6. sing 7. Poetry helps us share our feelings and thoughts in a special way. 8. Psalm 95:1 9. Words that sound similar at the end of lines, Words that create pictures in our minds 10. worship