

Review: Reading Aloud for Others

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Blessing of Reading

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the lesson about reading aloud.

1. Why is reading aloud important?

- A. It is fun
- B. It can serve and bless others
- C. It takes a long time

2. 1 Timothy 4:13 encourages us to give attention to ____, exhortation, and teaching.

3. How can reading help someone feel loved? Give an example.

---

---

4. Match the way reading aloud can serve others with the examples.

Family devotions

Helping to pray together

Reading in church

Sharing God's word with others

5. What makes a good read-aloud experience?

- A. Reading quickly
- B. Using clear and expressive voice
- C. Ignoring the audience

6. Proverbs 22:17 says to listen to the words of the wise and apply your ____ to my teaching.

7. In what ways can you use reading to bless someone this week? List two ways.

---

---

8. What is one reason why clear reading is important?

- A. It makes the reader look smart
- B. It helps others understand better
- C. It makes the book shorter

9. Reading God's word can encourage and ____ people.

10. What did you learn about reading today that you will remember?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. It can serve and bless others 2. reading 3. Reading to someone can show them you care. For example, reading a story to a younger sibling can make them feel special. 4. Helping to pray together 5. Using clear and expressive voice 6. heart 7. I can read a book to my little brother. I can read a Bible story to my family. 8. It helps others understand better 9. teach 10. I learned that reading can help others feel loved and connected.