

Math Story Problems Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Word Problems with Biblical Themes

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about creating word problems using multiplication and division.

1. What is one objective of today's lesson?

- A. Create original songs
- B. Create original word problems
- C. Draw pictures of animals

2. A good word problem should include clear ____.

3. What makes a word problem interesting? Give an example.

4. Match the concepts to their descriptions.

Multiplication

Sharing equally

Division

Groups of something

5. Using biblical themes in our math problems is not important.

True

False

6. What skills do we develop by creating word problems? Circle the correct answer.

Creative problem-solving

Only writing skills

Listening skills

7. How did you use biblical themes in your word problems?

8. Proverbs 22:29 teaches us that a skilled person will stand before ____.

9. What is one way to make math problems fun?

- A. Make them harder
- B. Use interesting stories
- C. Ignore the math

10. What was challenging about creating word problems?

Answer Key

1. Create original word problems 2. numbers 3. Adding fun characters or a storyline can make it interesting. For example, a story about a shepherd counting his sheep. 4. Sharing equally 5. False 6. Creative problem-solving 7. I included characters from the Bible or stories that relate to the lessons we learn. 8. kings 9. Use interesting stories 10. It was hard to think of a good story and make sure it had the right numbers.