

Understanding Fractions in Scripture

BibleMouse.com

Review of Breaking Bread and Sharing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about fractions and sharing in the Bible.

1. What did Jesus do with the loaves and fish in John 6:11?

- A. He threw them away
- B. He distributed them
- C. He ate them all

2. Fractions help us understand how to share food fairly, just like Jesus did when he ____ the bread.

3. Why is sharing important in our understanding of math and fractions?

4. Match the biblical event to the lesson about fractions.

Feeding of the 5,000

Shows how food can be divided

Jesus sharing with disciples

Teaches us about God's love

5. What does sharing food teach us about God's love?

- A. It is not important
- B. It shows kindness and care
- C. It only matters when we have enough

6. When Jesus fed the 5,000, he showed us how to divide food into ____ parts.

7. How might Jesus have divided the bread fairly among the people?

8. What do fractions represent in terms of sharing?

- A. Only numbers
- B. Parts of a whole
- C. Nothing at all

9. The story of Jesus feeding the 5,000 shows that sharing is a way to express ____ for others.

10. What did we learn about fractions today in relation to sharing?

Answer Key

1. He distributed them 2. distributed 3. Sharing helps us see how things can be divided fairly among friends. It teaches us about kindness and fairness. 4. Shows how food can be divided 5. It shows kindness and care 6. fractional 7. He might have cut the bread into equal pieces so everyone could have some. This way, everyone gets a fair share. 8. Parts of a whole 9. love 10. We learned that fractions help us understand how to share things fairly, just like Jesus did with the loaves and fish.