

Celebrating a Year of Math

BibleMouse.com

Final Project Presentations Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about your math presentations.

1. What is one objective of the final project presentations?

- A. Practice public speaking
- B. Draw a picture
- C. Play a game

2. Proverbs 16:16 teaches us that getting ____ is better than gold.

3. What makes a good presentation? List two important things.

4. Match the skill with its description.

Public Speaking

Using math terms in your project

Mathematical Vocabulary

Sharing your project confidently

5. How can we show respect to our fellow presenters?

- A. Laugh at mistakes
- B. Listen quietly
- C. Talk while they present

6. During your presentation, you should ____ what you learned.

7. How did you grow as a mathematician this year? Share one way.

8. What is one thing you should do when presenting your project?

- A. Read from your notes the whole time
- B. Share your project clearly
- C. Ignore the audience

9. Math helps us understand God's world better by showing us how to use ____ in real life.

10. Why is it important to get understanding according to Proverbs 16:16?

Answer Key

1. Practice public speaking 2. wisdom 3. A good presentation is clear and uses math words. 4. Public Speaking, Using math terms in your project 5. Listen quietly 6. explain 7. I learned to solve problems better and help others. 8. Share your project clearly 9. numbers 10. Understanding helps us make good choices and learn more.