

Giving Thanks for the Gift of Math

BibleMouse.com

Celebrating a Year of Math

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about our lesson on math and gratitude.

1. What is one skill you learned in math this year?

---

---

2. Mathematical skills are gifts from God that help us understand and serve in the ____.

3. According to the lesson, why should we give thanks for math?

- A. It helps us solve real-world problems
- B. It is always easy
- C. It is just numbers

4. How can understanding math glorify God?

---

---

5. Match the math skill with its purpose.

Addition

Helps us measure space

Geometry

Helps us find totals

6. What does Psalm 139:14 remind us about ourselves?

- A. We are made to be perfect at math
- B. We are fearfully and wonderfully made
- C. God does not care about us

7. Learning math develops critical thinking ____ that are important for life.

8. What was one of your favorite math memories this year?

---

---

9. How can math help us serve others?

- A. By making us smarter than others
- B. By helping us solve problems for them
- C. By making math fun

10. What was the most challenging part of math for you this year?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. I learned how to add and subtract larger numbers. 2. world 3. It helps us solve real-world problems 4. Math shows us God's order and creativity in the world. 5. Helps us find totals 6. We are fearfully and wonderfully made 7. skills 8. By helping us solve problems for them 9. I found fractions difficult to understand, but I worked hard on them. 10.

---

