

Understanding Major and Minor in Music

BibleMouse.com

Exploring the Moods of Music

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about major and minor scales.

1. What do major scales typically sound like?

- A. Sad
- B. Bright and happy
- C. Serious

2. What do minor scales typically sound like?

- A. Bright and happy
- B. Serious or sad
- C. Loud

3. We can praise God with music using instruments like the ____ and harp.

4. How can music help us express our feelings?

5. Match the scale type to its mood.

Major

Happy

Minor

Serious

6. Psalm 150 encourages us to praise God with the sound of the ____ and tambourine.

7. What made your major melody sound happy?

8. Which of the following instruments is NOT mentioned in Psalm 150?

- A. Harp
- B. Drums
- C. Lute

9. How did your minor melody sound different from your major melody?

10. Why is music considered a gift from God?

- A. It is fun to play
- B. It helps us express emotions
- C. It is easy to learn

Answer Key

1. Bright and happy 2. Serious or sad 3. lute 4. Music can help us feel better by matching our emotions. It can make us happy or help us feel calm. 5. 0,1 6. trumpet 7. The notes were bright and had a cheerful rhythm. 8. Drums 9. The minor melody felt more serious and made me think of sad feelings. 10. It helps us express emotions
