

Recorder Solos Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Your Solo Selection

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about choosing a recorder solo.

1. What is one reason to select an appropriate solo piece?

- A. To impress friends
- B. To match your skill level
- C. To play something popular

2. Colossians 3:23 teaches us to work ____ as for the Lord.

3. What should you consider when selecting a solo piece?

4. Which is NOT a type of recorder solo?

- A. Classical
- B. Pop
- C. Basketball

5. Match the skill level with the appropriate solo type.

Beginner

Simple melodies

Advanced

Complex compositions

6. Why is it important to evaluate your musical strengths?

7. A piece that is too hard can make you feel frustrated.

- True False

8. What can help build confidence in musical decision-making?

- A. Choosing easy pieces only
- B. Practicing a lot
- C. Ignoring your skills

9. A good solo piece should match your ____ level.

10. What piece did you choose for your solo?

Answer Key

1. To match your skill level 2. heartily 3. You should consider your skill level and the piece's difficulty. 4. Basketball 5. Simple melodies 6. It helps you choose pieces that you can play well and enjoy. 7. True 8. Practicing a lot 9. skill 10. I chose 'Twinkle Twinkle Little Star' because it is fun and fits my level.