

Music Dynamics Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Volume in Music

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about musical dynamics.

1. What does 'pp' stand for in music dynamics?

- A. Piano soft
- B. Piano loud
- C. Piano medium

2. What does 'ff' indicate in music?

- A. Very soft
- B. Very loud
- C. Medium loud

3. Changing the ____ of music can change its mood.

4. Why is it important for musicians to know dynamic markings?

5. Match the dynamic marking with its meaning.

pp

Very soft

ff

Very loud

6. Can you give an example of how volume can express different emotions in music?

7. What is one way we practiced dynamics in class?

- A. Writing a song
- B. Singing a worship song
- C. Listening to music

8. Musicians use dynamic markings to tell how loudly or ____ to play.

9. What did Psalm 100:1 say about making a joyful noise?

10. How can volume make music more interesting?

- A. By changing the speed
- B. By changing the mood
- C. By adding more instruments

Answer Key

1. Piano soft 2. Very loud 3. volume 4. Dynamic markings help musicians know how loud or soft to play, making the music more expressive. 5. 0,1 6. A lullaby is soft and soothing, while a march is loud and energetic. 7. Singing a worship song 8. softly 9. It encourages everyone to make a joyful noise to God, showing joy through music. 10. By changing the mood

