

Year-End Recital Review

BibleMouse.com

Stage Presence and Transitions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about what you learned in the lesson.

1. What is one key technique for confident stage walking?
 - A. Head down, shoulders forward
 - B. Head up, shoulders back
 - C. Walking fast
2. Bowing shows ____ to the audience and fellow musicians.
3. Why is it important to have a good stage presence during a performance?

4. What can music bring to a performer, according to the lesson?
 - A. Fear and sadness
 - B. Confidence and peace
 - C. Anger and frustration

5. Match the performance action to its purpose.

Stage Walking

Shows respect

Bowing

Keeps the performance smooth

Transitions

Builds confidence

6. What did David do to help King Saul feel better?

7. Why should we practice bowing before a recital?
 - A. To have fun
 - B. To show respect
 - C. To make noise

8. Smooth transitions keep the performance ____.

9. How can we show gratitude to our audience after a performance?

10. Stage presence is about being shy and quiet during a performance.

True

False

Answer Key

1. Head up, shoulders back 2. respect 3. It makes the performance better and shows confidence. 4. Confidence and peace 5. Shows respect 6. David played the harp to bring relief to Saul. 7. To show respect 8. professional 9. We can bow and say thank you to show we appreciate them. 10. False

