

Pollen Detectives Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How Plants Reproduce

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about pollen and how it helps plants reproduce.

1. What is pollen like for plants?

- A. A special delivery system
- B. A type of fruit
- C. A kind of tree

2. Pollen helps plants make ____.

3. How do you think pollen moves from flower to flower?

4. Match the method of pollen movement to the correct description.

Bees

Carries pollen while flying

Wind

Blows pollen from one flower to another

5. Why do plants need pollen?

- A. To make food
- B. To make seeds
- C. To grow taller

6. God designed ___ and wind to help spread pollen.

7. What did you notice about the pollen you collected?

8. Pollen is not important for plant reproduction.

True False

9. What did God say about plants in Genesis 1:11?

- A. They should not bear fruit
- B. They should put forth grass and herbs
- C. They make flowers only

10. Why is the design of pollen important to plants?

Answer Key

1. A special delivery system 2. seeds 3. Pollen moves by bees and wind. 4. Carries pollen while flying 5. To make seeds 6. bees 7. The pollen was fine and colorful. 8. False 9. They should put forth grass and herbs 10. It helps them reproduce and create new plants.