

Variation Within a Species

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Traits and Inheritance

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what you learned about variation within a species.

1. What is one example of variation within a species?

- A. All dogs are the same
- B. Different dog breeds
- C. All flowers are identical

2. Variation within a species shows God's ____ in creation.

3. How do flowers of the same type differ from each other?

4. Match the examples to their descriptions.

Siblings

Look similar but different

Dog Breeds

Different types of dogs

5. What did God create according to their kinds?

- A. Animals
- B. Vegetation
- C. Both animals and vegetation

6. Members of the same species can have different ____.

7. Why is variation important in nature?

8. What scripture talks about God creating plants according to their kinds?

- A. Genesis 1:11
- B. Genesis 1:1
- C. Genesis 2:7

9. Dogs of the same breed can look ____ but have different traits.

10. What is one way you are different from your siblings?

Answer Key

1. Different dog breeds 2. creativity 3. They can have different colors and sizes. 4. Look similar but different 5. Both animals and vegetation 6. appearances 7. It allows for diversity and adaptation in living things. 8. Genesis 1:11 9. similar 10. I have different hair color than my siblings.