

Sedimentary Rocks: Layers of History

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Sedimentary Rocks

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about sedimentary rocks.

1. What are sedimentary rocks primarily made of?

- A. Magma
- B. Sand, mud, and tiny particles
- C. Crystal formations

2. Sedimentary rocks form through the process of ____ and compression.

3. What do fossils in sedimentary rocks tell us?

4. Draw a line from each term to its correct description.

Sedimentary Rocks

Formed from layers of materials

Fossils

Remains of past life found in rocks

5. How do layers form in sedimentary rocks?

- A. From flowing lava
- B. By being pressed together over time
- C. By cooling and solidifying quickly

6. God's design in rock formation shows His ____ and creativity.

7. Why do sedimentary rocks often have visible layers?

8. Sedimentary rocks form quickly under high temperatures.

- True False

9. What scripture relates to God's creation of the earth's foundation?

- A. Genesis 1:1
- B. Job 38:4
- C. Psalm 23:1

10. Sedimentary rocks can tell us about ____ from the past.

Answer Key

1. Sand, mud, and tiny particles 2. deposition 3. They tell stories about past life and environments. 4. Formed from layers of materials 5. By being pressed together over time 6. intricate 7. Because they are formed from layers of sand, mud, and particles over time. 8. False 9. Job 38:4 10. history