

Weathering and Erosion Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Rocks and God's Creation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about weathering and erosion.

1. What is weathering?

- A. Moving rocks to a new place
- B. Breaking rocks into smaller pieces
- C. Creating new rocks

2. Erosion moves pieces of rock by ____, wind, or ice.

3. What did you observe happening to the rocks during the experiment?

---

---

4. What natural force can cause rocks to break down?

- A. Fire
- B. Water
- C. Gravity

5. Match the process to its description.

Weathering

Moves rocks from one place to another

Erosion

Breaks rocks into smaller pieces

6. God designed the processes of weathering and erosion to show His ____ in nature.

7. How is erosion different from weathering?

---

---

8. What did Job 14:18-19 tell us about rocks?

- A. They can be moved from their place
- B. They never change
- C. They stay the same forever

9. Weathering breaks rocks down into ____ pieces.

10. Why do you think weathering and erosion are important in nature?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Breaking rocks into smaller pieces 2. water 3. The rocks broke into smaller pieces and some were moved around. 4. Water 5. Moves rocks from one place to another 6. creativity 7. Erosion moves the broken pieces, while weathering just breaks them down. 8. They can be moved from their place 9. smaller 10. They help create soil and shape the earth's landscape.