

The Heavens Declare God's Glory

BibleMouse.com

Review of Space Exploration and God's Creation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about space and God's creativity.

1. What does Psalm 19:1 say about the heavens?

- A. They are empty
- B. They declare the glory of God
- C. They are not important

2. Scientific exploration helps us appreciate God's ____.

3. What is one thing you learned about space this week?

4. Why is space exploration important for understanding God?

- A. It shows us how big the universe is
- B. It helps us find aliens
- C. It allows us to ignore God's creation

5. Match the part of space to what it shows about God.

Stars

God's creativity

Planets

God's power

6. The expanse shows God's ____.

7. How does learning about space make you feel about God?

8. What part of space do you find most amazing?

- A. Black holes
- B. Galaxies
- C. Stars

9. The heavens do not show anything about God according to Psalm 19:1.

True False

10. How can we worship God by studying His creation?

Answer Key

1. They declare the glory of God 2. creativity 3. I learned that space is very big and it has many stars. 4. It shows us how big the universe is 5. God's power 6. handiwork 7. It makes me feel amazed at how powerful and creative He is. 8. Stars 9. False 10. We can worship Him by appreciating His design and creativity in everything we see.