

Nature Study Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Art of Seeing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about detailed nature study and observational drawing.

1. What techniques did we learn to improve our observational drawing skills?

---

---

2. What does Psalm 104:24 remind us about God's creation?

- A. It is full of chaos
- B. It is full of riches
- C. It is boring

3. Drawing natural objects can help us reflect on God's attention to detail.

True       False

4. When we draw, we must pay attention to the ____ and characteristics of the object.

5. How does your drawing reflect the complexity of God's creation?

---

---

---

6. What was the most challenging part of drawing your object?

- A. Capturing colors
- B. Showing texture
- C. Finding a good object

7. Using different pencil pressures can help show the form of an object.

True       False

8. God made the earth full of His ____.

9. Why is patience important in observational drawing?

---

---

10. What should we focus on while drawing a natural object?

- A. Speed
- B. Detail
- C. Color

---

Answer Key

1. We learned contour drawing techniques and how to use different pencil pressures. 2. It is full of riches 3. True 4. texture 5. My drawing shows the intricate details and unique features of the object, highlighting how amazing God's creation is. 6. Showing texture 7. True 8. riches 9. Patience helps us notice details we might miss and allows us to create a more accurate representation of the object. 10. Detail