

American Landscape Study Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Hudson River School and Nature

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about landscape painting and the Hudson River School artists.

1. What was the main perspective of the Hudson River School painters regarding nature?

- A. Nature is just a backdrop
- B. Nature is a divine creation
- C. Nature is meant to be ignored

2. How might painting a landscape be a way of praising God?

3. Hudson River School artists painted landscapes to celebrate nature's beauty.

- True False

4. The Hudson River School painters believed that landscapes were a form of ____ worship.

5. What did Psalm 104:24 express about God's works?

- A. They are unimportant
- B. They are made in wisdom
- C. They are confusing

6. What details in nature show God's creativity?

7. The Hudson River School artists lived during the 1800s.

- True False

8. Artists from the Hudson River School focused on the ____ of the American wilderness.

9. Which time period did the Hudson River School artists primarily belong to?

- A. 1600-1700
- B. 1800-1870
- C. 1900-2000

10. How do artists show God's creativity in their work?

Answer Key

1. Nature is a divine creation 2. Painting a landscape allows artists to show their appreciation for God's creation and express their feelings of worship through art. 3. True 4. visual 5. They are made in wisdom 6. The variety of colors in flowers, the shapes of trees, and the patterns in clouds all display God's creativity. 7. True 8. details 9. 1800-1870 10. Artists depict the beauty and complexity of nature, using colors and techniques that highlight God's design.