

Respectful Inspiration Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Native American Art Traditions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about cultural appreciation and Native American art.

1. What is the difference between cultural appreciation and appropriation?

- A. Copying without permission
- B. Honoring and respecting traditions
- C. Ignoring cultural differences

2. Proverbs 22:28 reminds us to not move the ancient ___ stone.

3. What inspired your artwork? Describe the elements you included.

4. Creating artwork inspired by another culture means you can copy their designs exactly.

- True False

5. Why is it important to respect the original cultural context of artistic traditions?

- A. To avoid getting in trouble
- B. To honor the people and their history
- C. It's not important

6. How did you show respect for the cultural tradition in your artwork?

7. Art becomes meaningful when it reflects cultural ___ and stories.

8. Native American art is only about making things look beautiful.

- True False

9. What is one way to show respect when inspired by another culture's art?

- A. Ignore their rules
- B. Learn about their traditions
- C. Make money from it

10. Why do you think it is essential to have discussions about cultural appreciation?

Answer Key

1. Honoring and respecting traditions 2. boundary 3. I was inspired by traditional patterns and used colors that represent nature. 4. False 5. To honor the people and their history 6. I researched the meanings behind the symbols before using them in my piece. 7. heritage 8. False 9. Learn about their traditions 10. It helps us understand and respect different cultures, promoting harmony and creativity.