

Self-Portrait Project Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Facial Proportions and Uniqueness

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about observing your face.

1. How are your facial features unique? Explain in 2-3 sentences.

2. What is one important aspect of drawing a self-portrait?

- A. Using bright colors
- B. Understanding facial proportions
- C. Drawing quickly

3. Symmetry means that both sides of the face are identical.

True False

4. Psalm 139:14 reminds us that we are ____ and wonderfully made.

5. What did you learn about observation while sketching your face? Provide an example.

6. Which tool did we use to help us observe our facial features better?

- A. Notebook
- B. Mirror
- C. Paintbrush

7. Each person's face is special and reflects God's design.

True False

8. During the lesson, we discussed facial ____ and basic proportions.

9. What was challenging about drawing your own face? Describe one difficulty you faced.

10. Creating a self-portrait is mainly about drawing quickly without thinking.

True False

Answer Key

1. My facial features are unique because I have a different shape of eyes and a distinct nose. These features make me look like no one else, which is special. 2. Understanding facial proportions 3. False 4. fearfully 5. I learned that careful observation helps me notice small details, like the shape of my eyebrows. This helps make my sketch more accurate. 6. Mirror 7. True 8. symmetry 9. It was hard to get the proportions right, especially the distance between my eyes and nose. I had to keep adjusting my sketch. 10. False

