

African-Inspired Sculpture Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding African Art Traditions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about African sculpture.

1. What materials are traditionally used in African sculpture?

- A. Paper and plastic
- B. Wood, clay, and metal
- C. Glass and fabric

2. African sculpture is a way of telling ____, honoring traditions, and expressing spiritual beliefs.

3. Why is it important for sculptures to represent community values?

4. African sculptures are only made for decoration and have no deeper meaning.

- True False

5. What did God fill Bezalel with, according to Exodus 35:31-32?

- A. Spirit of wisdom
- B. Spirit of joy
- C. Spirit of music

6. How might art help people share important stories?

7. Sculptures often represent ancestors, spirits, or ____ values.

8. Creating art helps people express their creativity and share their cultural background.

- True False

9. What is one objective of learning about African art traditions?

- A. To memorize the names of artists
- B. To appreciate cultural diversity and artistic expression
- C. To learn about art supplies

10. What inspired your sculpture, and what story does it tell?

Answer Key

1. Wood, clay, and metal 2. stories 3. Because they help communicate what is important to the people and reflect their beliefs and traditions. 4. False 5. Spirit of wisdom 6. Art can visually represent experiences and emotions, allowing people to understand and connect with the stories being told. 7. community 8. True 9. To appreciate cultural diversity and artistic expression 10. My sculpture was inspired by my love for nature. It tells the story of how trees provide shelter and life.
