

Light and Shadow Photography Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring the Impact of Light in Photography

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about light in photography.

1. What is the most important element in photography?

- A. Color
- B. Light
- C. Composition

2. How does natural light change throughout the day? Give an example.

3. Shadows can add ___ and drama to photos.

4. Bright light has the same effects as soft light in photography.

- True False

5. What happens to shadows when the sun moves?

- A. They disappear
- B. They change size and position
- C. They become brighter

6. Why is light considered a powerful creative element in photography?

7. Psalm 104:2 mentions that God covers Himself with ___ as with a garment.

8. Photographers can only use artificial light for their images.

- True False

9. Which time of day might produce soft light ideal for photography?

- A. Noon
- B. Morning
- C. Midnight

10. Which photo did you like best from your light exploration activity and why?

Answer Key

1. Light 2. Natural light can be bright in the afternoon and softer in the morning, creating different feelings in photos. 3. depth 4. False 5. They change size and position 6. Light shapes how we see a photograph and can create different moods and effects. 7. light 8. False 9. Morning 10. I liked my afternoon photo best because the light made the colors more vibrant.