

Character Design Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Visual Storytelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about character design and visual storytelling.

1. What did you learn about showing character through art?

2. What can clothing, posture, and facial expressions communicate about a character?

- A. Their favorite color
- B. Their personality
- C. Their age

3. Character design is only about how a character looks on the outside.

True False

4. Yahweh looks at the _____, not just the outward appearance.

5. How can you show a character's mood through drawing?

6. What makes a character look brave?

- A. A sad face
- B. Strong posture and determined eyes
- C. Wearing bright colors

7. Visual details in art help viewers understand a character better.

True False

8. Characters have unique features that reveal their _____ world.

9. How is your character's inner self reflected in the drawing?

10. What is the purpose of character design in visual storytelling?

- A. To make characters look pretty
- B. To show personality and emotions
- C. To fill space on the page

Answer Key

1. I learned that using details like facial expressions and clothing can show a character's personality and feelings. 2. Their personality 3. False 4. heart 5. You can show a character's mood by changing their facial expression or the colors you use in the drawing. 6. Strong posture and determined eyes 7. True 8. inner 9. My character's inner self is shown through their expression and the colors I chose for their clothing, which reflect their feelings. 10. To show personality and emotions