

Setting the Scene Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Visual Storytelling in Art

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about illustrations and settings.

1. What does the setting of a story help to communicate?

- A. Time and place
- B. Characters only
- C. The ending

2. How can visual elements like colors and objects affect the mood of a setting?

3. The verse from Nehemiah describes a setting that is in great ____ and reproach.

4. Details in a setting are not important for storytelling.

- True False

5. What details did you include in your illustration to show its time and place?

6. Which of the following would best show a peaceful setting?

- A. Dark clouds
- B. Bright flowers
- C. Broken walls

7. A single object can reveal a lot about a scene's ____.

8. Using color in illustrations is unimportant for conveying mood.

- True False

9. What type of setting might show tension and struggle?

- A. A sunny beach
- B. A broken city wall
- C. A quiet library

10. How did you use color in your illustration to express the mood of the scene?

Answer Key

1. Time and place 2. Colors can make a scene feel happy or sad, while objects can show if it is a busy or quiet place. 3. affliction 4. False 5. I included a stone wall and a burning gate to show it was in biblical times. 6. Bright flowers 7. context 8. False 9. A broken city wall 10. I used dark colors to show sadness and danger in the scene, making it feel more intense.