

Review of Leading Lines and Movement

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Visual Composition in Art

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about leading lines and movement in artwork.

1. What are leading lines in artwork used for?

- A. To create patterns
- B. To guide the viewer's eye
- C. To fill the canvas

2. List two types of lines that can be used as leading lines in art. Why do you think artists choose these lines?

3. Leading lines can only be straight lines in artwork.

- True False

4. Leading lines can be _____, curved, diagonal, or zigzag.

5. Which of the following is an example of how an artist might use leading lines?

- A. To add more colors
- B. To create a sense of movement
- C. To make the painting larger

6. How does Proverbs 4:25 relate to the concept of leading lines in art?

7. Leading lines help make a painting more exciting by directing attention.

- True False

8. An artist can create a landscape drawing using intentional leading _____.

9. What is one effect of using leading lines in a landscape drawing?

- A. It makes the drawing confusing
- B. It creates visual movement
- C. It limits the viewer's perspective

10. What did you create in the activity related to leading lines? Explain how your lines guided the viewer's eye.

Answer Key

1. To guide the viewer's eye 2. straight and curved 3. False 4. straight 5. To create a sense of movement 6. The verse tells us to focus our gaze, just like leading lines in art guide the viewer's eyes to important parts of the artwork. 7. True 8. lines 9. It creates visual movement 10. I created a landscape with a river leading to a mountain. The curved lines of the river guide the viewer's eye from the foreground to the background.