

Review of Faith Ringgold

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Art and Storytelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about Faith Ringgold and her art.

1. What did we learn about Faith Ringgold and her contributions to art?

2. What medium did Faith Ringgold use to tell her stories?

- A. Paintings
- B. Sculptures
- C. Story quilts

3. Faith Ringgold's art only focuses on her personal experiences and does not reflect African American culture.

True False

4. Faith Ringgold combined painting and ____ techniques to create her story quilts.

5. What elements did Faith Ringgold use to make her story quilts vibrant?

- A. Black and white colors
- B. Monochrome shades
- C. Vibrant colors

6. How can art help us tell stories? Provide one example.

7. Faith Ringgold's story quilts are only meant to be beautiful and do not convey any meaning.

True False

8. In Exodus 35:31-32, it says that God filled him with the Spirit of God in ____, understanding, knowledge, and craftsmanship.

9. What did Faith Ringgold use her art to express?

- A. Personal experiences
- B. Historical events
- C. Both personal experiences and historical events

10. What stories are important in your family's history? Describe one briefly.

Answer Key

1. Faith Ringgold created story quilts that share important cultural experiences and narratives. She used vibrant colors and combined painting with traditional quilting techniques. 2. Story quilts 3. False 4. quilting 5. Vibrant colors 6. Art helps us express feelings and share important messages. For example, a painting of a family gathering can show love and connection in a family story. 7. False 8. wisdom 9. Both personal experiences and historical events 10. One important story in my family is how my grandparents immigrated to this country for a better life. It shows our family's strength and determination.

