

Review of Consequences and Curses

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Impact of Sin

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the Fall.

1. What was the consequence for the serpent after Adam and Eve's sin?

- A. It would fly
- B. It would walk on legs
- C. It would go on its belly

2. What are the four main consequences God pronounced after Adam and Eve's sin?

3. The woman's consequence includes ___ in childbirth and a complicated relationship with her husband.

4. God's justice means He does not care about humanity after they sin.

- True False

5. What does the man's consequence involve?

- A. Easy work
- B. Difficult work
- C. No work at all

6. How do the consequences of sin affect our relationships with God and each other today?

7. The ground was cursed to produce ___ and thistles.

8. Even after humanity's disobedience, God continues to show love.

- True False

9. What does this lesson teach us about the seriousness of sin?

- A. It is not important
- B. It has serious consequences
- C. It is only a small mistake

10. In what ways can we show that we understand the consequences of sin?

Answer Key

1. It would go on its belly 2. The serpent was cursed, the woman would have pain in childbirth, the man would have to work hard, and the ground would produce thorns and thistles. 3. pain 4. False 5. Difficult work 6. Sin can create distance between us and God, and can cause arguments and misunderstandings between people. 7. thorns 8. True 9. It has serious consequences 10. We can choose to be kind to others, ask for forgiveness when we hurt someone, and try to follow God's teachings.
