

Understanding Our Mediator: Moses and Jesus

BibleMouse.com

Review Questions on the Lesson about Mediation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the lesson.

1. What is a mediator, and how does it help people communicate?

2. Who is the mediator mentioned in 1 Timothy 2:5-6?

- A. Moses
- B. Christ Jesus
- C. Aaron

3. Sinful people can approach God directly without a mediator.

True False

4. Our sin separates us from God's ____.

5. Why do we need a mediator between us and God?

- A. To help us pray
- B. To fix our problems
- C. Because our sin separates us from Him

6. Can you give an example of a mediator from the Bible? Why did they act as a mediator?

7. Jesus' ministry is described as superior to the old covenant.

True False

8. Jesus gave himself as a ransom for ____.

9. What is the purpose of a mediator in God's plan of salvation?

- A. To teach us how to pray
- B. To help us understand God's promises
- C. To reconcile sinful people with a holy God

10. Why is it important to appreciate God's plan of reconciliation through a mediator?

Answer Key

1. A mediator is someone who helps two sides communicate. They listen to both sides and help them understand each other. 2. Christ Jesus 3. False 4. holiness 5. Because our sin separates us from Him 6. Aaron is an example of a mediator. He acted as a mediator because he helped the people communicate with God through sacrifices. 7. True 8. all 9. To reconcile sinful people with a holy God 10. It's important because it shows us how much God loves us and wants to be in a relationship with us, despite our sins.
