

Psalm 22: David's Cry, Jesus' Reality

BibleMouse.com

Understanding David's Prophecy about Jesus

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Psalm 22 and its connection to Jesus.

1. What is the main focus of Psalm 22?

- A. David's victories
- B. Jesus' crucifixion
- C. God's creation

2. What did David express in Psalm 22:1 that Jesus also said on the cross?

3. Psalm 22 shows that God had a ____ for Jesus' rescue mission long before He came.

4. Psalm 22 was written after Jesus was crucified.

- True False

5. How does knowing that God planned Jesus' rescue mission carefully affect your understanding of His love?

6. Which phrase from Psalm 22 did Jesus quote while on the cross?

- A. I thirst
- B. My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
- C. It is finished

7. David's psalm describes details of Jesus' ____ that match what happened during His crucifixion.

8. Psalm 22 only reflects David's personal struggles and has no connection to Jesus.

- True False

9. What specific detail in Psalm 22 connects to the events of Jesus' crucifixion?

10. What does the memory verse, Matthew 1:1, highlight about Jesus?

- A. He is the son of David
- B. He is just a prophet
- C. He is not important

Answer Key

1. Jesus' crucifixion 2. David expressed feelings of abandonment, saying, 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?', which Jesus repeated on the cross. 3. plan 4. False 5. It shows that God cares a lot and has a detailed plan for our salvation, which is very comforting. 6. My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? 7. suffering 8. False 9. The psalm mentions the piercing of hands and feet, which relates to how Jesus was crucified. 10. He is the son of David

