

Joel's Locust Plague Warning

BibleMouse.com

Understanding God's Judgment and Restoration

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Joel's prophecy and the locust plague.

1. What do the locusts represent in Joel's prophecy?

- A. God's blessings
- B. God's judgment
- C. God's mercy

2. What were the consequences of the locust plague for the people?

3. Joel's prophecy shows how God uses powerful images to speak to His ____ and call them back to Him.

4. The locusts only affected a small number of crops.

- True False

5. What does God desire from His people according to the lesson?

- A. To turn away from Him
- B. To repent and turn back to Him
- C. To ignore the locusts

6. How did God use the locust plague to communicate with His people?

7. In Amos 5:24, God wants justice to roll on like a ____ and righteousness like a never-failing stream.

8. The locusts symbolize God's mercy and protection.

- True False

9. What emotion might people feel when they see all their food destroyed?

- A. Joy
- B. Anger
- C. Sadness

10. What message can we learn from Joel's locust plague about our relationship with God?

Answer Key

1. God's judgment 2. The locust plague destroyed their crops and food, leading to hunger and hardship. 3. people 4. False 5. To repent and turn back to Him 6. He used it as a warning to show the consequences of turning away from Him and to encourage repentance. 7. river 8. False 9. Sadness 10. We learn that turning away from God can lead to serious consequences, but He desires to restore us when we repent.
