

Review of The Day of the Lord

BibleMouse.com

Understanding God's Judgment and Restoration through Joel and Amos

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about The Day of the Lord.

1. What does 'The Day of the Lord' refer to in Joel's prophecy?

- A. A day of judgment and restoration
- B. A day of celebration
- C. A day of rest

2. What are two key characteristics of God's judgment as described in the lesson?

3. The prophecy of Joel only talks about judgment and not about restoration.

- True False

4. God desires to restore His people after ____ their sins.

5. What does Amos 5:24 encourage us to do?

- A. Let justice roll like a river
- B. Ignore injustice
- C. Focus only on judgment

6. How can we develop compassion for God's desire to restore His people?

7. Joel's prophecy is a warning for only the people of his time and not for us today.

- True False

8. The inhabitants of the land were told to ____ when they heard the trumpet in Zion.

9. How does God show both justice and mercy?

- A. By only punishing sin
- B. By judging sin but also offering restoration
- C. By ignoring sin

10. What should our response be to God's message about judgment and restoration?

Answer Key

1. A day of judgment and restoration 2. God's judgment is fair and it seeks to restore His people. 3. False 4. judging 5. Let justice roll like a river 6. By understanding that God loves us and wants everyone to come back to Him, we can feel compassion for others. 7. False 8. tremble 9. By judging sin but also offering restoration 10. We should take it seriously, repent of our sins, and seek to live righteously, trusting in God's mercy.
