

Daily Life in a New England Village

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Colonial Community and Cooperation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about daily life in a New England village.

1. What was a central part of community life in a New England village?

- A. Shopping malls
- B. Church and town meetings
- C. Private homes

2. How did colonists help each other in their daily lives?

---

---

3. Everyone in a colonial village had an important role to play.

- True       False

4. Ecclesiastes 4:9 tells us that '___ are better than one.'

5. Which skill would NOT typically be needed in a colonial village?

- A. Farming
- B. Hunting
- C. Video game design

6. What can we learn from how colonists supported each other in their community?

---

---

7. Farming was not considered an essential skill for colonists.

- True       False

8. Daily life in a New England village included activities such as ___ and crafting.

9. What type of work did families do together to survive?

- A. Playing games
- B. Working on farms
- C. Watching movies

10. How is community life today different from colonial life?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Church and town meetings 2. Colonists helped each other by sharing tasks like farming, hunting, and crafting, which made them stronger as a community. 3. True 4. Two 5. Video game design 6. We can learn that working together and supporting each other is important for a successful community. 7. False 8. farming 9. Working on farms 10. Community life today often has more individualism and less face-to-face cooperation than in colonial times.