

Colonial Trades and Crafts Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Colonial Society and Daily Life

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about colonial trades and crafts.

1. Which trade involves making tools and hardware?

- A. Cooper
- B. Blacksmith
- C. Printer

2. Describe the role of a cooper in colonial society.

3. Silversmiths only made jewelry in colonial times.

- True False

4. Colony trades were important for community _____ and development.

5. How did people typically learn the skills for their trade?

- A. By reading books
- B. By working as apprentices
- C. By playing games

6. Printers helped spread information in colonial times.

- True False

7. What is one similarity between colonial jobs and jobs today?

8. Colossians 3:23 teaches us to work _____ as for the Lord.

9. What did blacksmiths create?

- A. Wooden furniture
- B. Metal tools
- C. Printed materials

10. Why were specialized crafts important in colonial society?

Answer Key

1. Blacksmith 2. A cooper made wooden barrels that were essential for storing and transporting goods. 3. False 4. survival 5. By working as apprentices 6. True 7. Both require skills and hard work to be successful. 8. heartily 9. Metal tools 10. Specialized crafts were important because they provided essential goods and services that the community relied on for survival.