

Review of Early Encounters: Help and Conflict

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Native Americans and European Contact

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the interactions between Native Americans and European colonists.

1. What is one way that Native Americans and European colonists helped each other?

- A. Trade goods
- B. Waging war together
- C. Ignoring each other

2. All encounters between Native Americans and Europeans were friendly.

- True       False

3. What are some cultural misunderstandings that can happen between different groups?

---

---

---

4. Proverbs 15:1 teaches us that a gentle answer can turn away ____.

5. According to Romans 12:18, what should we strive to do with all people?

- A. Live peacefully
- B. Argue often
- C. Be indifferent

6. Differences in land use concepts led to conflicts between Native Americans and European settlers.

- True       False

7. How can we show respect to people who are different from us?

---

---

---

8. Living peaceably with others shows God's ____ in our lives.

9. What was one negative aspect of early encounters between Native Americans and Europeans?

- A. Trade agreements
- B. Cultural exchange
- C. Conflict over land ownership

10. Early interactions between Native Americans and Europeans were straightforward and easy to understand.

- True       False

---

Answer Key

1. Trade goods   2. False   3. Cultural misunderstandings can happen due to different languages, traditions, and beliefs.   4. wrath   5. Live peacefully   6. True   7. We can show respect by listening to them, learning about their culture, and treating them kindly.   8. love   9. Conflict over land ownership   10. False