

Understanding Cultural Perspectives

BibleMouse.com

Native Americans and European Contact

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the different cultural views on land ownership and interactions between Native Americans and Europeans.

1. What did you learn about how Native Americans viewed land ownership?

2. What did Europeans see land as?

- A. A sacred resource
- B. A property to be bought
- C. A communal space

3. According to Acts 17:26, God created every nation of men from one ____.

4. Native Americans and Europeans had the same view of land ownership.

- True False

5. Why is it important to understand other cultural perspectives?

6. What was a misunderstanding that could lead to conflict between Native Americans and Europeans?

- A. Sharing land
- B. Different views on land ownership
- C. Trading resources

7. A good name is more desirable than great riches, according to Proverbs 22:1, and loving favor is better than silver and ____.

8. God's creation includes diverse cultures that should be respected.

- True False

9. How can we show respect for people who have different cultural views from us?

10. What does the lesson emphasize about God's view on human cultures?

- A. They are all equal and important
- B. They are better than one another
- C. They should be ignored

Answer Key

1. Native Americans viewed land as a communal resource that was sacred and meant to be shared. 2. 1 3. blood 4. False 5. Understanding other perspectives helps us develop empathy and prevents misunderstandings. 6. 1 7. gold 8. True 9. We can listen to them, learn about their culture, and treat them with kindness. 10. 0