

Review of The Navigation Acts: Trade Rules

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Colonial Economy and Trade

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about the Navigation Acts.

1. What were the Navigation Acts designed to do?

- A. To encourage trade with other countries
- B. To control colonial trade with England
- C. To allow colonists to trade freely

2. How did the Navigation Acts limit the economic freedom of colonists?

---

---

---

3. Colonists could only sell certain goods to ____.

4. The Navigation Acts allowed colonists to trade with any country they wanted.

- True       False

5. Why do you think England wanted to control colonial trade?

- A. To help the colonists become wealthy
- B. To make money for England
- C. To allow for fair trade

6. What feelings might colonists have had towards the unfair trade rules imposed by England?

---

---

---

7. A false balance is an abomination to Yahweh, but a just weight is his ____.

8. The Navigation Acts helped improve relationships between England and the colonies.

- True       False

9. What is one reason fairness is important in trade?

- A. It helps everyone make money
- B. It creates trust and good relationships
- C. It allows for more competition

10. What would you do if unfair rules were made about your work?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To control colonial trade with England 2. The Navigation Acts forced colonists to trade only with England and use English ships, which restricted their ability to trade freely with other countries. 3. England 4. False 5. To make money for England 6. Colonists might have felt angry or frustrated because they couldn't trade freely and had to follow unfair rules. 7. delight 8. False 9. It creates trust and good relationships 10. I would talk to the person who made the rules and express my feelings. I would also try to find a way to change the rules to be fairer.