

Review of the Triangular Trade

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Colonial Economy and Trade

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about the Triangular Trade.

1. What were the three main points of the Triangular Trade route?

- A. Europe, Asia, Americas
- B. Europe, Africa, Americas
- C. Africa, South America, Europe

2. What goods did Europe contribute to the Triangular Trade?

3. Africa primarily supplied ____ to the Triangular Trade.

4. The Triangular Trade was a simple system with no moral implications.

- True False

5. How did the Triangular Trade impact the Americas?

6. Which of the following goods came from the Americas?

- A. Textiles
- B. Sugar
- C. Enslaved people

7. The trade routes connected three continents: Europe, Africa, and ____.

8. The memory verse teaches about the consequences of exploiting the poor.

- True False

9. Why do you think people traded goods across such long distances?

10. What type of economy did the Triangular Trade support?

- A. Barter economy
- B. Agricultural economy
- C. Mercantile economy

Answer Key

1. Europe, Africa, Americas 2. Europe contributed manufactured items like textiles and tools. 3. enslaved people 4. False 5. The Americas provided raw materials like sugar and cotton to Europe, which were important for their economy. 6. Sugar 7. the Americas 8. True 9. People traded goods to obtain items they needed and to make a profit, despite the risks involved. 10. Mercantile economy