

Empires Collide: France vs. Britain Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the French and Indian War

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the conflict between France and Britain.

1. What did France want in North America?

- A. More coastal colonies
- B. Control of trade routes and fur resources
- C. To build more ships

2. What were the key reasons for the competition between France and Britain?

---

---

3. Britain had control of Canada during the mid-1700s.

- True       False

4. The Ohio River Valley was important because both countries wanted to control the ____.

5. Which Native American tribes were affected by the conflict?

- A. They were not affected
- B. They were caught in the middle
- C. They sided only with Britain

6. How might different cultures view land ownership differently?

---

---

7. Proverbs 13:10 teaches that pride can lead to quarrels.

- True       False

8. Both France and Britain wanted to control trade routes to gain more ____ and resources.

9. What might make peace difficult between France and Britain?

- A. Shared goals
- B. Lack of resources
- C. Pride and competition

10. Propose a way this conflict might be resolved peacefully. What could France and Britain do?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Control of trade routes and fur resources    2. Both countries wanted to control important trade routes and resources like fur, and they desired more land for their empires.    3. False    4. land    5. They were caught in the middle    6. Some cultures may see land as something to own and control, while others might see it as a shared resource for everyone to use.    7. True    8. wealth    9. Pride and competition    10. They could negotiate and agree on shared land use or create treaties that respect both countries' interests.