

Review of No Taxation Without Representation!

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Political Representation and Fairness

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the tensions between the colonies and Britain.

1. What does representation mean?

- A. Having a voice in government decisions
- B. Being taxed without input
- C. Being ignored by leaders

2. Why were colonists frustrated with British taxes?

---

---

3. The slogan 'No Taxation Without Representation' means that colonists wanted to be taxed fairly.

- True       False

4. Colonists had no voice in ____ when taxes were created by the British Parliament.

5. What is one way people can peacefully protest unfair laws?

- A. By breaking the law
- B. By writing letters to leaders
- C. By refusing to pay taxes

6. What makes a government fair, according to the lesson?

---

---

7. The colonists were represented in the British Parliament when taxes were created.

- True       False

8. Proverbs 22:22-23 reminds us not to exploit the ____ because they are poor.

9. Why is it important to have a voice in government?

- A. So that leaders can ignore the people
- B. To ensure everyone has a say in decisions that affect them
- C. So that only a few people can make decisions

10. How can we ensure fairness today in our government?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Having a voice in government decisions    2. They felt it was unfair to be taxed without having a say in government decisions.    3. False    4. Parliament    5. By writing letters to leaders    6. A fair government includes giving people a voice and allowing them to participate in decision-making.    7. False    8. poor    9. To ensure everyone has a say in decisions that affect them    10. We can ensure fairness by voting, being involved in our communities, and speaking up for those who are not heard.