

Lexington and Concord: The Shot Heard Round the World

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Beginning of the American Revolution

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Lexington and Concord.

1. What was the 'shot heard round the world'?

- A. The first shot fired in the American Revolution
- B. A famous song
- C. A battle cry

2. Why was Paul Revere's ride important?

3. The battles at Lexington and Concord were the first armed conflicts of the American Revolution.

- True False

4. Paul Revere used a warning system that involved ___ and ___ to alert the colonists.

5. How did the colonists feel facing British soldiers?

- A. Confident and excited
- B. Scared and nervous
- C. Indifferent

6. What role does courage play in standing up for what is right?

7. Victory in battle relies solely on human preparation.

- True False

8. Proverbs 21:31 teaches us that while we prepare, ultimate victory is from ___.

9. What was one difference between the British and Colonial forces?

- A. The British had more soldiers
- B. The Colonials had better weapons
- C. The British were more organized

10. How can God use ordinary people for extraordinary purposes, like Paul Revere?

Answer Key

1. The first shot fired in the American Revolution 2. Paul Revere warned the colonists about the British troops coming, which helped them prepare for battle. 3. True 4. lanterns, riders 5. Scared and nervous 6. Courage helps people to do what they believe is right, even when they are afraid. 7. False 8. Yahweh 9. The British had more soldiers 10. God can use anyone to fulfill His plans, even if they seem ordinary, by giving them courage and a purpose.