

The Price of Loyalty and Patriotism

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Choices During the Revolutionary War

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about Patriots, Loyalists, and Neutrals during the Revolutionary War.

1. What did you learn about the personal costs people faced when choosing to be a Patriot or a Loyalist during the Revolutionary War?

2. What does the memory verse Matthew 5:9 teach us about peacemakers?

- A. They will be rich
- B. They will be called children of God
- C. They will have many friends

3. Families were often united during the Revolutionary War regardless of their beliefs.

- True False

4. Both Patriots and Loyalists believed they were doing what was ____.

5. How can we show respect to people who think differently from us, based on what you learned?

6. What was a common consequence for people who chose to be Loyalists?

- A. They gained more friends
- B. They lost jobs or property
- C. They were praised by everyone

7. Staying true to one's principles can lead to difficult choices and consequences.

- True False

8. The scripture Proverbs 3:3-4 encourages us to bind mercy and truth around our ____

9. What is one feeling someone might experience when disagreeing with their family about an important issue?

- A. Happiness
- B. Fear
- C. Confusion

10. What does it mean to be a peacemaker in today's world, based on our lesson?

Answer Key

1. Many people faced loss of property, jobs, and even family relationships when they chose a side. It was a difficult decision that often came with significant consequences. 2. They will be called children of God 3. False 4. right 5. We can listen to their opinions, try to understand their feelings, and treat them kindly even if we disagree. 6. They lost jobs or property 7. True 8. neck 9. Fear 10. Being a peacemaker means helping to resolve conflicts and encouraging understanding between people with different opinions.