

Women of the Revolution Review

BibleMouse.com

---

Understanding the Contributions of Women in History

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the women who contributed to the American Revolution.

1. Who were two key women mentioned in the lesson, and what did each contribute to the Revolution?

---

---

---

2. What was one of Mercy Otis Warren's contributions during the American Revolution?

- A. Fighting in the war
- B. Writing about revolutionary ideas
- C. Disguising as a man

3. Deborah Sampson fought in the war while disguised as a man.

True       False

4. Abigail Adams encouraged women's rights through her ____.

5. How can we see God's hand in the work of these women during the Revolution?

---

---

---

6. What does Proverbs 31:26 teach us about women?

- A. They are wise and can give faithful instruction
- B. They should stay silent
- C. They cannot lead

7. The contributions of women in the Revolution are often celebrated and recognized in history books.

True       False

8. Deborah Sampson disguised herself as a man to fight for ____.

9. Why is it important to honor the contributions of women in history?

---

---

---

10. What common trait did the women discussed in the lesson share?

- A. They were all writers
- B. They all fought in the war
- C. They showed courage and commitment to freedom

---

Answer Key

1. Abigail Adams and Mercy Otis Warren; Abigail Adams encouraged independence and women's rights, and Mercy Otis Warren spread revolutionary ideas through her writing. 2. Writing about revolutionary ideas 3. True 4. letters 5. God used these women to bring about change and inspire others, showing that He can use anyone for His purposes. 6. They are wise and can give faithful instruction 7. False 8. freedom 9. It shows that everyone, regardless of gender, can make a difference and contributes to society's progress. 10. They showed courage and commitment to freedom